Alfred Leslie Goldberg OAM

Alfred 'Alf' Goldberg OAM was a renowned local character, widely known and universally loved, who will be sorely missed.

Alf was a man who lived his values. He was a man who knew about service – he served his country in the Second World War and he served his community throughout his life.

Throughout the many years I knew him, he worked tirelessly as a volunteer in many roles in the local area.

Whether it be at the Noble Park RSL or through the Benevolent Society, or simply helping neighbours with food and groceries or just a chat, he was generous with his time and with what he had.

He was welcoming and accepting, proud of his community and the diversity of those who came to join it and also call it home.

A stalwart of the Labor Party for many decades and the Dandenong North Branch in particular, he was renowned for dedicating many hours at the early voting centres in the lead-up to election days, wearing his distinctive hat covered in Labour Movement badges.

I send my condolences to the Goldberg Family - Audrey, Joseph, Dallas, Oscar, Hayley and Jessica - for their loss. I am sure that the many fond memories of Alfie that are being shared will help them in their time of grieving.

Yours sincerely,

The Hon Daniel Andrews MP
